Preamble

In accordance with the Glendon College tradition of a bilingual, liberal arts education dedicated to public service; in esteem of the great academic traditions built within York University; cherishing Canada's multicultural identity; and seeking to define the roles and responsibilities invested within the student union, and to facilitate an active role for its members; the students of Glendon College do hereby establish this constitution to govern the affairs of the Glendon College Student Union.

Section 1: Introduction

Part 1: Name

1.1 The name of the organisation hereby constituted shall be the Glendon College Student Union, hereinafter referred to as the GCSU.

Part 2: Vision

2.1 The vision of the GCSU is as follows:

- I. Foster and support activities and events, both of the GCSU and of clubs, which will enhance the university experience of its members and contribute to the educational and social experience of the College;
- II. To safeguard the rights of the individual students regardless of age, gender expression, race, nationality, ancestry, citizenship, marital status, illness or results from medical tests, sexual orientation or preference, place of residence, school of thought, beliefs, religious affiliations or activities, criminal record, any physical handicap or invalidity, or participation or non-participation within the student union, and to further promote and encourage social consciousness.
- III. Effectively represent the student body and its interests by serving as an advocate and a liaison both within the Glendon College and York University communities and with individuals and organisations beyond them;
- IV. Encourage student participation and engagement within the Glendon College community;
- V. Encourage and advocate for academic and intellectual pursuits;
- VI. Work to enhance the bilingual character of Glendon College by providing services and opportunities to students in both French and English;

Part 3: Official Languages

3.1 The official languages of the GCSU shall be French and English.

Part 4: Membership

4.1 The membership of the GCSU is constituted by all students at York University taking at least three (3) credits at Glendon College. The membership of the GCSU shall be further defined as:

- I. any student living in residence at Glendon College;
- II. any student with the college affiliation of Glendon College;
- III. any student with the faculty affiliation of Glendon College.

Part 5: Rights and Freedoms

5.1 The rights and freedoms of the members of the GCSU shall be as follows:

- I. Every member is equal under and before the constitution of the GCSU, and has equal rights to benefits under this constitution without discrimination related to age, gender expression, race, nationality, ancestry, citizenship, marital status, illness or results from medical tests, sexual orientation or preference, place of residence, school of thought, beliefs, religious affiliations or activities, criminal record, any physical handicap or invalidity, or participation or non-participation within the student union.
- II. Every member may use either official language at all meetings of the GCSU and may request to read proceedings of such meetings in either language.
- III. Every member has the rights to vote in Elections, Referenda and General Meetings held by the GCSU.
- IV. Every member is eligible to stand for election for any position on the GCSU as long as they meet qualifications as specified in section 2
- V. Every member has the right to participate in events, benefit from services and organizations supported financially by the GCSU.
- VI. Any member whose rights or freedoms as guaranteed by this constitution have been infringed or denied may apply to the Executive Committee of the GCSU who shall then consult the council in order to obtain such remedy as the council considers appropriate and just in the circumstances.
- VII. All members have the rights to speak at the meetings of the Council and at General Meetings.
